

MASTER OF INTERNATIONAL ACCOUNTING PROGRAM (MINTA)

Commencing date: December 2010

Closing date: October 30th, 2010

Program Delivery Method

The three stages leading to the Master of International Accounting qualification, consists of 12 subjects that will be offered over a three year period on a part time basis delivered in an intensive mode. Each subject in the program consists of 40 contact hours in classes are delivered in phases:

The First phase:

The first of the two phases will be lectures given by the Swinburne University staff. This phase is an intensive block of classes delivered in English, which will be conducted over mid-week evenings, and all day Saturday. Students who have paid their subject fees will receive a subject manual textbook prior to attending these lectures.

The Second phase:

The second phase will follow this intensive week of classes. This phase will be delivered by tutors from NEU and consist of five three-hour classes. The purpose of these classes will be to review content from lectures, complete tutorial questions, and also provide assistance to participants in their preparation for the examination and completion of assignments.

Following the second phase of classes there will be a one-week study break. The final exam for the subject will be conducted at the end of this study week.

In addition to the final exam, participants will complete an assignment requiring the application of the subject content to a practical problem in Vietnam. This will be the form of ether a case study or a research topic.
