

ASIAN
CRIMINOLOGICAL SOCIETY
11TH
ANNUAL CONFERENCE
CEBU, PHILIPPINES
JUNE 23 - 26, 2019

January 28, 2019

Dear Fellow Criminologists and Social Scientists,

Greetings from the Asian Criminological Society!

The Asian Criminological Society is composed of scholars and researchers from the different Universities in Asia and the Pacific, in the fields of Criminology, Criminal Justice, Policing, Corrections and other allied fields (<http://www.acs002.com>). In the past we have set the annual conferences in Korea, India, China, Australia and last year Malaysia hosted the convergence of Asian Criminologists. This year we have decided that Philippines will be hosting our 11th ACS Conference, which will be on June 23-26, 2019 at SEDA AYALA CENTER CEBU, Cardinal Rosales Avenue, Cebu Business Park, Cebu City, Philippines with the conference Theme: “Contextualizing Challenges in Criminology and Criminal Justice in Asia”, (<http://www.11thacsannualconference.com>).

In relation to the matter above mentioned, we are cordially inviting you to join us in this conference and share your study/research to our fellow Criminologists and Social Scientists. The areas of the conference are the following, but not limited to: Drugs and Drug Rehabilitation; Juvenile Justice System; Criminal Justice System and Alternatives; Crime Prevention, Policing and Law Enforcement; Jails, Prisons and Community-Based Corrections; Women Offenders and Victimology; Forensics and Cyber Crimes; Environmental/Ecological Crimes; Terrorism and Transnational Crimes; Security and Safety and other allied areas. We hope that you can take part in the continuing formation of the body of knowledge in criminology and criminal justice.

We are looking forward to your engagement in shaping the Asian Criminology and Criminal Justice.

Thank you.

Gerry J. Caño
